February 6: Plain Valley Washington Cup Classic race, good local option open to all. Team supported if there is interest.

February 12-14: Spokane Junior Qualifier: classic sprint qualifier Friday afternoon; sprint heats Saturday; individual start freestyle Sunday. Need USS license to race. Hopefully Team supported.

February 20: Plain Skier Cross Freestyle Washington Cup. Good local option open to all. Team supported if there is interest.

February 28: Cabin Creek Washington Cup Finals likely classic. Open to all. Team supported if there is interest.

RACES that we might attend IF Covid numbers are better and travel is more viable:

January 2-3: Possible FIS races at Soldier Hollow Utah FR sprint (maybe qualifier only) & 10/15k classic interval start.

January 16-18: Soldier Hollow Junior Qualifier and FIS race: Classic sprint (maybe qualifier only); 5/10k freestyle; 10- 15/20k classic collegiate race open to those that want. U14 races too.

March 25-28: Possible Western Spring Series in Sun Valley Idaho: 3/25 classic interval start; 3/27 freestyle sprint; 3/28 long distance freestyle. Need USS license to race.

RACES POTENTIALLY SUPPORTED BY PNSA depending on the situation leading into the races:

March 5-7: Western Youth Championships Jackson Wyoming. U14 culminating race if there is interest and selected team possibly supported by PNSA.

March 8-13: Western Regional Championships Open to skiers who have qualified for the PNSA team 3/10 freestyle interval start; 3/11 classic sprint maybe qualifier only; 3/13 classic interval start. Need USS license to compete.

NOTE: as of 11/10 Team supported means that coaches will be at the event and will help with wax and prep skiers for the races. No group travel and lodging recommended or team supported at this point. IF things change we will work to add in more support. At team supported events, all athletes competing may pay a fee to cover the costs of the coaches (Not at Washington Cup events).
